Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, November 2, 1821.

As usual we have had the pleasure of distributing from our office, nearly all the important prizes drawn this week in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY. Nos. 1174, and 10421. prizes of One Thousand Dollars each are amongst them; the first we sent to Norfolk, Va.—the latter is owned in this city, and for which the cash was paid a few minutes after it was drawn.

The Thousand Dollar Prize, which came up on the 18th day to No. 18227, was presented a few days ago, at Cohen's Office, by its owner, Mr. Edward Dulin, of Noland's Ferry, Virginia; the Cash was instantly paid him, as usual.

On WEDNESDAY NEXT, it will be recollected, the first drawn number in the grand State Lottery, will be entitled to the brilliant independence of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS! Only nine drawings remain to complete this splendid scheme—the great capital of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is also yet undrawn, and the wheel having gained the astonishing sum of Twenty-four thousand, four hundred and eighty dollars! presents to the adventurer a very superior opportunity of investing.—Tickets are only Twelve dollars, and shares in proportion.

Next week we shall present to our friends and the public, the scheme of the fifth class of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY; the same having been duly approved by the Commissioners agreeably to the Act of Assembly. Patriotism as well as interest, will prompt the encouragement of the sales of tickets in this scheme; the object of which is the completion of the noble column now erecting in this city, to the memory of him who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

In our last we published a report of an important decision made in Baltimore County Court, relative to the Insolvent Law of Maryland. We now insert an article on this important subject, from the Federal Gazette of Friday evening last—the editor of which paper being now a practitioner at the bar, leaves no doubt of its correctness.

"It is now fully understood and admitted, that the only benefit which a debtor can obtain by an application to the commissioners of Insolvent Debtors is, the release of his person from imprisonment. The right of creditors to obtain the full amount of their just claims out of any property acquired by an insolvent debtor subsequent to his application for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, it is also admitted, is not affected by any release or discharge which such debtor has obtained or can obtain. Our insolvent system, under the present construction of the law, is therefore become comparatively harmless, and the complaints of creditors as to its injurious effects, we presume, will cease. We consider it now of so little importance for creditors to know that their debtors are applying for the benefit of a law which can only release their persons from imprisonment, while all their property, rights, claims and future acquisitions remain answerable for their debts, that we shall discontinue the publication of the list of applicants for the benefit of the insolvent laws, after this day."

By the ship Herculus, which arrived at New-York on the 23d ult. intelligence was received of the partial destruction of the English crops, in consequence of which, large speculations were made in that city on that day at 6 to $6 25; next day Flour rose to 7 1-2, and Thursday from 8 to $8 1-2. On Friday the Market was less active, and holders were disposed to sell at 8 to $8 1-2. The transactions in bread stuffs have been very extensive, and a spirit of speculation has been manifested in most other leading articles; prices, however, in most of them, have not altered, although they have been more active. Rice advanced to $4, and large sales made. We refer to the following statement: The demand has however been principally speculative, and all depends on the next advices as to future prices.

Flour.—New-York superfine, 8 to $8 50; Richmond city and Philadelphia, 8 50; Petersburg, Fredericksburg, and Alexandria 8 25—Wheat, Northern, 1 75; do. Southern, 1 62—Rye, 70 a 75—Corn, Northern, 68; do. Southern, 62—Rye-Flour, 4 50—Corn Meal, 4; do. in hhds. 16.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.

Extensive sales of rice, flour and molasses took place in New-York last week, at advanced prices; but yesterday speculation in flour was at a stand in that city, as it is here, "watching for further advices from Europe." Freights to Liverpool have advanced in New-York; exchange on England is nominal. Brandy and ashes have improved in prices, and an increased business is doing in provisions generally.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 20.

The commissioners of the town have the pleasure to state, that the late prevailing fever has subsided—that the town is extremely healthy, and, that persons absent may follow the example of their fellow-citizens, who have already returned to their habitations, without the least apprehension.

The Surgeon of the French frigate Arethusa, while lying at New-York, transmitted for publication the following remarkable cure:

"During our stay at Annapolis, a great many of the crew of the French frigate Arethusa were attacked with the cholera morbus, which was quickly put a stop to by the use of rice water, very strong, with much sugar, and a little laudanum in it, drank plentifully. Out of one hundred and forty sick, only one died."

Steubenville Cloths.—Among the articles not entered for a premium were two pieces of superfine broad-cloths, exhibited by Mr. Jacob T. Walden, agent for the manufacturers, Mess. B. Wells & Co. Steubenville, Ohio, made from wool of the growth of that state. These pieces were considered equal to the best imported broad cloths. We have never seen any American cloths which were preferable to several pieces we saw some time since from the same establishment. N. York paper.

The Boston Palladium of the 19th inst. says, "we are informed that several of the banks in this town have determined to loan money at five per cent. interest. This measure, we conceive, will have an important animating effect on the business of the place. While in many remote states complaints are made of the scarcity of money, it appears to be plenty here. Our moneyed men have, for some time, discounted good notes and drafts at five per cent."

RALEIGH, (N C.) Oct. 26th.

Mail Robbery. Thomas Haswell, Deputy or assistant Post-Master, and merchant of Louisburg, was committed to the Jail of this city, on Monday last, on a charge of robbing the United States' Mail. It appears several packages of letters have miscarried between Petersburg and Raleigh within a few months, and by a plan concerted by Mr. Shore, Post-Master at Petersburg, and Mr. Smith, P. M. at this place, each of the intermediate Post Offices were tested. It would, perhaps, be improper to go into a detail of all the circumstances until after the trial, which will probably take place the 12th of next month.—Mr. Haswell was arrested in Fayetteville, by Lark Fox, Esq. Mail contractor, assisted by McRae, Esq. Post Master at Fayetteville, who may truly be said to be a terror to Mail Robbers, as he has arrested four or five in the course of a few years.

The public are cautioned against receiving counterfeit Five dollar notes on the Bank of Cape Fear—four or five have been received in this place within a few days. They are believed to have been put in circulation by a negro trader, who passed through here a few days ago.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

BELLEFONT, (Penn.) Oct. 17.—On the 8th day of October, inst. Judge Foster, of M'Kean county, was shot accidentally, by his son. The circumstances relating to this melancholy event are as follows: The son had left home for the purpose of hunting wolves: after he had been gone some time, the father went out for the same purpose. As is common among hunters, one of them set up a howling, after the manner of a wolf, and was answered by the other. They continued howling in this manner until they approached each other within a very short distance. The father had hid himself behind a log, placing brush upon his back to disguise himself, so that when the wolf, (as he supposed) came near enough to shoot, it would not be frightened away. Having raised himself a little for that purpose, the son observing the motion, fired, taking the object fired at to be a wolf. The ball entered the right side of the neck and passed out at the left hip. The son, on finding what had happened took off his coat and vest, placed them under his father's head, and started home for the purpose of getting aid; but his senses fled before he reached his father's residence; he became deranged and was found in that situation; not knowing or having power, at that time, to relate the dreadful and heart-rending tale.

The examination of midshipmen at New York, for promotion, was terminated on Saturday last, and out of 59, 53 passed.

Orders have been received at Baltimore to provide Guards for the MAIL from Baltimore to Philadelphia on the night route.

POSTSCRIPT.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 31.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM LIVERPOOL.

The ship Orion, capt. Davis, which was left at Liverpool to sail in 3 or 4 days after the Herculus, is below.

HALF PAST ONE.—Our boat has just came up from the Orion. She left Liverpool in the afternoon of the 21st September, and has brought no newspapers. The captain informs that although it rained several days after the Herculus left Liverpool, yet the crops were not as much injured as was at first apprehended.
